Profile

Erin is a supervisor in the Tax Services Group. She works with families and business owners in individual and corporate tax planning, wealth transfers, stock option planning for executives and succession planning. Her client base includes a variety of industries and services, including real estate & construction, wholesalers and professional service firms. Erin is also experienced in tax compliance and consulting for numerous not-for-profits.

Erin was selected as the staff liaison working with the partner group to develop the firm's Wealth Management practice. She earned the Personal Financial Specialist credential (PFS) from the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants (AICPA), which distinguishes CPAs who specialize in personal financial planning. Erin joined AMD in 2003 and was promoted to supervisor in 2008.
